For sale in Avigliana, in a quiet area, we offer a tourist accommodation facility located on the shores of Lago Grande. Built in the 70s, the property needs a complete renovation and is made up as follows.

The ground floor, measuring approximately 425 m2, was previously used as a disco and is accessible via a porticoed entrance. Inside, we find a cloakroom, a spacious ballroom, a corner bar and toilets. A large internal staircase connects the ground floor to the first floor, which extends for approximately 330 m2 and offers the same services as the lower floor, including an additional ballroom, a corner bar and toilets. A large outdoor terrace overlooking the lake is the ideal place to relax and enjoy the view.

The second floor, measuring around 183 m2, houses a restaurant with kitchens and toilets. Also in this case, there is a large terrace facing the lake, which adds a touch of charm to the place. The third floor, measuring approximately 88 m2, houses a hotel with entrance hall, common corridor, 4 bedrooms and 1 toilet. This floor is connected internally to the fourth attic floor, measuring approximately 85 m2, which offers a further 4 bedrooms and a bathroom. Both floors have a terrace facing the lake, which allows guests to enjoy a breathtaking view.

The solution also includes a garage on the street level and a large green area of about 2,000 square meters used for parking. The area is fenced and has a double driveway access. There is also an Executive Plan agreement which provides for an increase in volume equal to 30% of the existing volume. The property offers ample possibilities for customization and adaptation and presents itself as a unique opportunity to start a new business.
