The eat-in kitchen with balcony, a bedroom and the bathroom are the only rooms overlooking the large internal courtyard for exclusive condominium use, intended for car parking.

The period building retains all the original architectural details, both internal and external, such as high ceilings, colored cement tile floors and decorations that add a touch of elegance.

The sea view is one of the most spectacular aspects of this apartment. Every day, you will be able to enjoy the charm of a sea view and breathtaking sunsets that color the sky.

Attached to the apartment there are additional services such as private parking in the condominium area, concierge and lift.
